Dear Ms Stinson

Freedom of information application

I refer to your request received by the Office of the Premier seeking access under section 13 of the Freedom of Information Act 1991 (the Act) to:

Copy of the current and latest ministerial directory/staff contact list (including names, emails and phone numbers) for the Office of the Premier Steven Marshall - Premier and Minister for the Arts. Date range – 30/08/2020 to 11/09/2020

The Department for the Premier and Cabinet (DPC) is responsible for providing determinations on behalf of the Office of the Premier.

The purpose of this letter is to advise you of my determination.

One document was identified as answering the terms of your application and I have determined to release this document to you in part.

Sections of this document contain information relating to the personal affairs of third parties, namely mobile phone numbers. Under clause 6(1) of Schedule 1 to the Act, information is exempt if releasing it would involve the 'unreasonable disclosure of information concerning the personal affairs of any person'. I have considered that the application of clause 6(1) requires two elements, one that the information contains the personal affairs of that person; and secondly that disclosure would be unreasonable. I have determined that this information falls within the category of 'personal affairs' as listed under section 4(1) of the Act, thereby meeting the first elements of this clause.

Further, I have considered whether the disclosure of this information would be unreasonable. In doing so, I have considered the relevance of this information to the public and the likelihood as to whether the people in question would consent to disclosure. I have also considered the risks associated with putting this information into the public domain. I have considered the factors in favour of public interest and determined that these factors are outweighed by the need to maintain personal confidentiality in this instance. Therefore, I have determined that this information meets the requirements of clause 6(1) and is thereby exempt pursuant to this clause.

Exemptions

Clause 6 – Documents affecting personal affairs

(1) A document is an exempt document if it contains matter the disclosure of which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of information concerning the personal affairs of any person (living or dead)

FOI Disclosure Log

In compliance with Premier and Cabinet Circular PC045 - Disclosure Logs for Non-Personal Information Released through Freedom of Information (PC045), DPC is now required to publish a log of all non-personal information released under the Freedom of Information Act 1991.

In accordance with this Circular, any non-personal information determined for release as part of this application, may be published on the DPC website. A copy of PC045 can be found at the following address: <http://dpc.sa.gov.au/what-we-do/services-for-government/premier-and-cabinet-circulars> Please visit the website for further information.

Right to internal review

If you are aggrieved with this determination, you have a right to apply for internal review under subsection 29(1) of the Act. Pursuant to subsection 29(2), your application must:

- be in writing
- be addressed to the principal officer, and
- be lodged at an office of DPC, or emailed to DPCFOIUnit@sa.gov.au within 30 days after the day on which you receive this letter or within such further time as the principal officer may allow.

If you have any questions in relation to this matter, please contact Denise Cranwell, Freedom of Information Officer, on telephone 8429 5299, or via email at denise.cranwell@sa.gov.au.

Yours sincerely

Eamon Maloney
Accredited Freedom of Information Officer
