As at 30 June 2022

South Australian Government Boards and Committees Information

As at 30 June 2022

Introduction

This is the 26th annual report to Parliament of consolidated South Australian Government board and committee information. The report sets out the membership and remuneration arrangements of 167 part-time government boards and committees as at 30 June 2022 in order of ministerial portfolio.

The information has been sourced from the Boards and Committees Information System (BCIS), a database administered by the Department of the Premier and Cabinet, following consultation with all ministerial offices and stakeholder agencies.

Definition of boards and committees in the report

The boards and committees included in this report are those which are:

- established by or under an Act of Parliament of South Australia (generally excluding the Local Government Act 1999) and have a majority of members appointed by either a minister or the Governor, or
- established by a minister or legal instrument such as a constitution or charter, with a majority of members appointed by a minister, and at least one paid member.

The report should not be considered a complete listing of all state government boards and committees.

Highlights

Number of boards and committees

The 2022 report identifies 167 government boards and committees. Portfolios with the greatest number of boards and committees were Climate, Environment and Water (38), Health and Wellbeing (22), Treasurer (16) and Education, Training and Skills (12).

Cost of boards and committees

The total cost of remuneration for board and committee members at 30 June 2022 was estimated to be $11.8 million, funded via both government and external funding.

Diversity on boards and committees

Of 1561 board and committee positions held on 30 June 2022, 802 were held by men (51.4%) and 759 were held by women (48.6%).

167 board and committee positions (10.7%) were held by people who identified as Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander.

Parameters of the report

1. The report is a snapshot of the data recorded on BCIS as at 30 June 2022. It does not include boards which have ceased operating or members who have left a position in the previous year.
2. The report is tabled in Parliament on an annual basis within eight weeks of the end of the financial year, subject to Parliamentary sitting dates.
3. Accountability and responsibility for the accuracy of the information rests with each minister.
4. Fee information is provided in full, and includes:
 - any annual, sessional or hourly amounts paid to members
 - the source of remuneration funding, and
 - additional information and fee explanations when necessary.
