

Overseas Travel – June 2017

Public sector employees

| No of travellers | Destination                               | Reasons for Travel   | Total Cost of Travel <sup>1</sup> |
|------------------|---|--|-----------------------------------|
| 1                | United Kingdom(18 May to 2 June 2017) | Attend the Strategic Leadership Course in the SAID Business School - Oxford, as part of professional development. This was a valuable opportunity to work with leaders from across the world who are facing similar challenges.  | $21,619.53                       |
| 1                | United Kingdom(27 May to 4 June 2017) | The United Kingdom (UK) government led in the execution of a whole of government communications plan, a strategic approach that the South Australian government now models itself as best practice approach. The purpose of the trip was to review the effectiveness of the UK communications reform.  | $3,506.76                        |
| 2                | Netherlands(16 June to 25 June 2017)  | To accept the United Nations Public Service Award for the Fund My Community project. The award is the most prestigious international recognition of excellence in public service. South Australia was the only Australian delegation, and was awarded first prize in the category Promoting transparency, accountability and integrity in public service. | $9,511.43                        |

Approved for publication – September 2017 Althea. rpk

Disclaimer - Note: These details are correct as at the date approved for publication. Figures may be rounded and have not been audited.

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution (BY) 3.0 Australia Licence <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/3.0/au/>
To attribute this material, cite Government of South Australia

<sup>1</sup> Excludes salary costs