

Projects Supported by the Stolen Generations Community Reparations Fund

September 2017

Organisation/Applicant	Description	Recommended Grant
Aboriginal Health Council SA	Creating a healing and memorial garden to share the story of the Stolen Generations	$95,000
Aboriginal Lands Trust	Site improvements at Colebrook Reconciliation Park	$105,750
Ara Irititja Corporation	Research to update the Ara Irititja database to enable improved access to Aboriginal family histories	$90,000
Ardagula Aboriginal Corporation	Projects to preserve history and language at Oodnadatta	$38,409
City of Adelaide	Creating a Stolen Generations public artwork and place of reflection at Rymill Park	$100,000
City of Playford	Creating an entry statement at the Stolen Generations healing and memorial garden, Andrews Farm	$99,490
Dusty Feet Mob	Equipment and materials to support a dance group of young Aboriginal people in Port Augusta	$25,000
Journey of Healing	Equipment and materials to support their activities	$10,000
Judy Beyer (auspiced by Blackwood Reconciliation Group)	Records preservation and oral history project relating to Colebrook Home	$15,000
Martin Pascoe (auspiced by	Performing arts project	$10,000

Catholic Education SA)	relating to Stolen Generations
Marula Aboriginal Corporation (auspiced by Cultural Partnerships)	Preserving and making accessible records, photographs, stories and cultural information of the Wangkangarru Yuarluyandi people in far north-east South Australia	$100,000
Murray Bridge High School	Oral histories of Stolen Generations	$92,202
Nexus Multicultural Arts	Preserving and making accessible Barngarla songs, music and performance, Port Augusta	$79,000
Ngarrindjeri Land & Progress Association (auspiced by Swinburne University)	Preserving and making accessible Ngarrindjeri photographs, documents and stories	$75,000
Point Pearce Aboriginal Corporation	Creating a Stolen Generations memorial and garden at Point Pearce	$45,000
Raukkan Community Council	Renovating a farmhouse to provide a healing place for Stolen Generations	$51,260
Relationships Australia (SA)	Holding a Stolen Generations Healing Camp and related activities	$91,500
SA Museum	Improving the management and access to significant datasets relating to Aboriginal family history	$70,000
Stolen Sisters (auspiced by SA Stolen Generations Corporation)	Supporting the activities of the Stolen Sisters group	$5,000
Wami Kata Old Folks Home, Port Augusta	Creating a healing and memorial garden	$45,455
	Total	$1,243,066